

NELSON MONUMENT

The Best Views of Edinburgh
from 2 Historic Landmarks

The Nelson Monument and the view north.

SCOTT MONUMENT

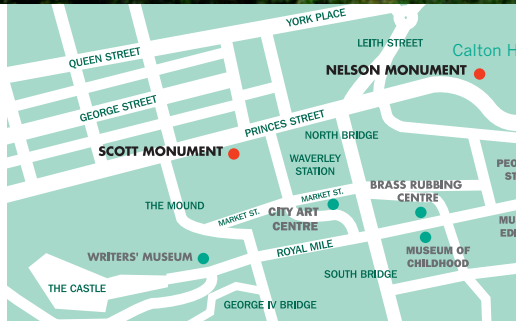

The Best Views of Edinburgh
from 2 Historic Landmarks

• EDINBURGH •
THE CITY OF EDINBURGH COUNCIL

Designed by the City of Edinburgh Council
Corporate Services
112/C&S/SR/August2008

See Edinburgh
in 287 steps

View from the first level of The Scott Monument

THE SCOTT MONUMENT

Opening Hours

SUMMER (from April 1st): Monday-Saturday 9am-6pm Sunday 10am-6pm.

WINTER (from October 1st) Monday-Saturday 9am-3pm Sunday 10am-3pm

Admission £3.00

www.edinburgh.gov.uk/monuments

Built to commemorate Sir Walter Scott, one of Scotland's greatest novelists, there are 287 steps to the top. Climb through the internal stairway for fantastic views from the heart of Edinburgh's historic Old and New Towns.

THE NELSON MONUMENT

Opening Hours

SUMMER (from April 1st) Monday 1pm-6pm, Tuesday-Saturday 10am-6pm

WINTER (from October 1st) Monday-Saturday 10am-3pm

Admission £3.00

Perched high on Calton Hill in the heart of Edinburgh sits the monument to Admiral Lord Nelson. The best place to experience breathtaking views of Edinburgh's Old and New Towns, Arthur's Seat and the distant Forth rail and road bridges.

View to the West from the Nelson Monument

